RULES AND REGULATIONS

Preamble:

With the adoption and recording of these Article “J-Rules” they become the documents that will be enforced from this day forward. Any pre-existing non-conforming conditions, existing as of January 1, 2019, shall be deemed existing until such time as any alteration, that includes any portion of this condition, is requested or made. For the alteration to be allowed it must provide for the total pre-existing non-conforming condition to be brought into compliance with the current “J-Rules”.

Past Pre-existing non-conforming conditions may not be used as justification to violate or misinterpret the most current “J-Rules” that have been adopted by the Unit owners and are the documents of record at Pasco County.

GLOSSARY: For Exhibit “J” Only

Accessory structures: Include, but are not limited to, porches, stairs, handicap ramps, handicap lifts, carports, AC units, and sheds.

Alterations: Any and all physical changes to the outside of a unit. (“Any and all” means all!)

Association/Board: Board of Directors.

Averaging: Measurement method used to place structures on an irregular shaped lot. The measurement is taken from the property line to the front corner and rear corner of the structure and not from any bay or bow windows or any other protrusions or accessory structures. If the front measures 5 ft. and the rear measures 10 ft. the average would be 7-1/2 ft. Averaging is used for locating the sides of a structure only. Averaging is not used for the placement of structures in relation to the front or rear setbacks. (See Appendix #D-2)

Buffer areas: The common ground that runs the perimeter of the park. It generally measures in 25 ft. from the hurricane fence that surrounds the park. (See PCLDC 530.12 -I)

Cabana: Enclosed addition, constructed on site, and classified as near living space. Not the principle living space and shall include, but not limited to, electric, heat, and air conditioning. (See PCPA)

Car tow dolly: A two-wheel open trailer with one or two ramps that facilitates carrying the subject vehicle. Should be stored under the RV. Appendix #D-4

Carport: Covered parking area attached to Park Model (park trailer).

Duly authorized inspection team of the Association: A team consisting of a Board Member and a member of the Building Review Committee. The function of the team is to ensure compliance of ACPZ J-Rules.

Facility: An inclusive item that includes the unit, attached additions, accessory structures, and carports, etc.

Fence: An above ground structure serving as an enclosure, barrier, or a boundary. Usually made of, but not limited to, posts or stakes joined together by boards, wire, or rails. (See West's Encyclopedia of American Law) Other materials include, but not limited to, masonry blocks, concrete, stone, and brick. Natural materials could include, but not limited to, shrubs and trees.

Florida/Screen room: Enclosed addition located within setbacks.. Constructed on site without heat or air conditioning, and usually is screened or has plastic windows. Can be made into near living space with the addition of AC and heat. (See PCPA)

Guest: A registered visitor of a unit owner or renter who may enjoy the activities of the park. Visitors who are in the park less than 24 hours, and are in the company of the owner/renter in residence, need not be registered.

Lot: Land only. Official dimensions are shown on the maps of record located in the ACPZ office.

Maintained: Repair of, or replacement of, with like kind. Asphalt roof with asphalt roof, plastic windows with plastic windows, and painting would all be considered "with like kind".

Near living space: Cabana. Additional living space that is permitted in conjunction with the Principle Living Unit. In all instances the Principle Living Unit must be on the RV site.

Non-living space: Enclosed space without, but not limited to, heat, air-conditioning, and electricity.

Owner: Individual(s) who are listed on the public record of Pasco County, Florida as having the deed or other instrument establishing title to an RV site. (See DC18.2)

Park Model (park trailer): A Principle living unit meeting one of the following:

- Commercially constructed to ANSI A-119.5 shall not exceed 400 square feet (12ft.x35ft.).

- Commercially constructed to the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development standard shall not exceed 500 square feet (14ft.x35ft.). (See FS DMV320.01-b-7)

(All square footage measurements are of the exterior of the unit excluding any bay windows.)

Porch, landing, stoop: Accessory structure that may be located in the setbacks as a means of ingress and egress. When located in the setbacks can be enclosed with screening, lattice, or left open. (roof optional) Cannot be made into near living space.

Pre-existing conforming condition: Any physical condition that exists that does not conform to the latest recorded association documents but was in conformance the day it was installed. It may continue to exist as long as it is maintained. (Determinations of this condition are made from records maintained by the association.)

Pre-existing non-conforming condition: Any physical condition that exists that does not conform to the latest recorded association documents and was not in conformance the day it was installed. It may continue to exist as long as it is maintained and no changes are made. Any alterations to this condition would require it to be brought into compliance with the current rules. (Determinations of this condition are made from records maintained by the association.)

Principle living unit: A commercially manufactured Park Model (park trailer), Motor Home, Fifth wheel, or RV Travel trailer.

Principle Structure: Park Model (park trailer) or Roof-over.

Recreational Vehicle (RV): Commercially manufactured Park Model (park trailer), Motor Home, Fifth Wheel, RV Travel trailer, camping trailer (pop-up), private motor coach, and a truck camper on a licensed truck. (See FS DMV 320.01-b)

Registered: Persons, who have acknowledged in writing that they have received, read, and agree that they will adhere to the J-Rules as well as any other requirements required by the Association.

Renter: A registered tenant who leases a unit, in monthly increments, for their possession and use. They may participate in all allowable activities. (See FS 718.106 (4))

Roof-over: Principle structure that completely covers the buildable area of a lot. For a typical 45ft. wide x 65ft. deep lot the roof-over would be 30ft.wide x 35ft. deep. The 30ft.wide x 35ft. deep dimensions are all that would be required for a lot larger than typical. Comparable to (See Appendix #D-3)

Shall: "Shall" means must!

Shed (free standing): Accessory structure limited to 100 sq. ft. maximum for storage.

Set back line For a typical 45x65 ft. lot with or without a principal building (See Appendix #D-1) (See PCLDC 530.12 F,G,H)

- Front 20 ft. from lot line.
- Exception: Corner lots shall have two 20 ft. front setbacks and two 7 1/2 ft. side setbacks (no rear setback). (See PCLDC) The following lots have vested rights to have one reduced front setback more closely resembling a side yard of 7 1/2 ft. Lots: 30, 53, 68, 100, 163, 184, 215, 223, 260, 290, and 304. (See vested rights determination letter dated 10/10/1989 Pasco County Planning and Zoning Dept.
- 7.5 ft. from lot line. (may be averaged on irregular pie shaped lots Appendix #D-2)
- Rear 10 ft. from lot line. (Exception: Accessory structures may be allowed to be 5 ft from a rear property line on lakefront properties only. The lakefront lot must have sufficient width to build.)

These are the minimum dimensions mandated by the county. (See PCLDC Section 530.12 RV Subdivisions.)

There may be common ground between the front setback and the street. Unit owners are allowed to use this land for grass, stones, and driveways. Parking is allowed except when there is an existing sidewalk.

For an irregular, often pie shaped, lot. (See Appendix #D-2)

Irregular pie shaped properties may have side setback dimensions that are smaller on one end and larger on the other end. This is when averaging is used to locate a building on a lot. (Averaging is calculated by the county during the permit process.)

Larger lots may have dimensions that are greater than the minimum. They may be narrower in the front or rear and deeper than the 65 ft. typical property. An example would be a narrow front pie shaped property where a building must be setback farther from the front property line to allow a 30 ft. +/- wide building to be installed because the front is 25 ft. narrower than the 45 ft. width. Maintaining front setback of 20 ft. minimum between property line to the front of the principal structure is essential.

Larger lots accommodate the construction of larger additions. They must still be built within the setbacks. The Park Model Park Trailer is still limited to the dimensions defined in the ACPZ J-Rules. (See GLOSSARY Park model)

Temporary: Time frame for a condition allowed by the Board at the discretion of the Board.

Unit: Park Model (park trailer), RV travel trailer, Motor Home, or Fifth Wheel trailer.

Unreasonable noise: Sound at such a level that it presents an annoyance to neighbors.

Within set back lines: Not to be “in” or “on” the designated setback areas.

* For definitions, not provided in this glossary, the ACPZ Office dictionary shall be referred to.*

People under the age of eighteen (18) are allowed on the condominium property only for visits with relatives and for not more than thirty (30) consecutive days and not more than sixty (60) total days per calendar year.

Immediate family members (defined as parents, grandparents, children, grandchildren, brothers and sisters) under the age of fifty-five (55) and over the age of eighteen (18) may temporarily occupy a unit owned by an immediate family member over the age of fifty-five (55) without the owner being present. This will be by written permission from the unit owner, will not be considered a lease or rental, and will not exceed thirty (30) days duration during any calendar year.

24CFR Part 100 subpart E mandates that at least eight percent (80%) of our units that are occupied must be occupied by at least one person who is fifty-five (55) years of age or older. The association reserves the remaining twenty percent (20%) for rights of inheritance and surviving spouse. This means that upon death of the over fifty-five (55) owner/resident, the heirs or surviving spouse under fifty-five (55) will not be required to sell or move out of the property and may live in it. If they choose to sell or rent the property, it must be to a person fifty-five (55) years of age or older."

EXHIBIT "J"
ADOPTED 26 MARCH 2018
AMERICAN CONDOMINIUM PARKS-ZEPHYRHILLS
A CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC.

"J-Rules"
DECLARATIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

Preamble:

With the adoption and recording of these Article "J-Rules" they become the documents that will be enforced from this day forward. Any pre-existing non-conforming conditions, existing as of January 1, 2018, shall be deemed existing until such time as any alteration, that includes any portion of this condition, is requested or made. For the alteration to be allowed, it must provide for the total pre-existing non-conforming condition to be brought into compliance with the current "J-Rules".

Past Pre-existing non-conforming conditions may not be used as justification to violate or misinterpret the most current "J-Rules" that have been adopted by the Unit owners and are the documents of record at Pasco County.

GLOSSARY: For Exhibit "J" Only

Duly authorized inspection team of the Association: A team consisting of a Board Member and a member of the Building Review Committee. The function of the team is to ensure compliance of ACPZ J-Rules.

Facility: An inclusive item that includes the unit and attaching additions and accessory structures, carports, etc.

Set Back Line: Appendix #D-1: For a typical 45x67 ft. lot with or without a principal building (see typical drawing Appendix #D-1):

- Front 20 ft. from lot line
- Side 7.5 ft. from lot line. (may be averaged on irregular pie shaped lots Appendix #D-2)
- Rear 10 ft. from lot line. (Exception: Accessory structures may be allowed to be 5 ft. from a rear property line on lakefront properties only. The lakefront lot must have sufficient width to build.)

These are the minimum dimensions mandated by the county (PCLDC Section 530.12 RV Subdivisions).

There may be common ground between the front property line and the street. Unit owners are allowed to use this land for grass, stones, and driveways. Parking is allowed except when there is an existing sidewalk.

For an irregular, often pie shaped, lot. (See Appendix #D-2)

Irregular pie shaped properties may have side setback dimensions that are smaller on one end and larger on the other end. This is when averaging is used to locate a building on a lot. (Averaging is calculated by county during the permit process.)

Larger lots may have dimensions that are greater than the minimum. They may be narrower in the front or rear and deeper than the 65 ft. typical property. Example would be a narrow front pie shaped property where a building must be setback farther from the property line to allow a 30 foot +/- wide building to be installed because the front is 25 ft. narrower than the usual 45 ft. width. Maintaining front setback of 20 foot minimum between property line to front of the principal structure is essential.

Larger lots accommodate the construction of larger additions. They must still be built within the setbacks. The Park Model (park trailer) is still limited to the dimensions defined in the ACPZ J-Rules.

3. ADDITIONS AND ALTERATIONS:

F. When allowed, landings with or without stairs, shall not extend more than 5 ft. into the front setback.

Accessory structures, such as landings or porches, when allowed in the rear, side, or front setback areas may be enclosed with railings, shades, lattice, or screening (no glass windows). Being in the setback areas they may not be enclosed with insulated walls, heating or air conditioning (i.e.; cannot be made into living space).

Accessory structures, when allowed to extend into any setback, do not change the minimum setback requirement for the principal structure.

9. INSPECTIONS:

No unit or additions may remain on a lot for more than five (5) days without the facility having approved by a duly authorized representative of the Association as having met the requirements of the Association as to the condition and type of facility, and all facilities may be inspected annually as to condition and conformance to these rules and regulations. approval by a duly authorized inspection team representing the Association and ensuring compliance with the ACPZ J-Rules and requirements of the Association as to the condition and type of facility. All facilities may be inspected annually as to condition and conformance to these rules and regulations.

14. SIGNS:

A. No signs of any kind shall be displayed without the written consent of the Board.

B. Rules for "FOR SALE" Signs:

1. One sign per lot only.
2. If there is a building (dwelling or storage shed) on the lot, ~~a sign not to exceed 10' x 16'~~ a sign not to exceed 16 inches x 24 inches by area, can be placed in the window of the building facing the street while the lot/unit is for sale.
3. If no building (dwelling or storage shed) exists on the lot, one (1) free standing sign, not to exceed 16 inches x 24 inches, can be placed on the lot 10 feet from the curb line while the lot is for sale.

C. A sales/rental listing board for lots and units will be made available by the Association.

18. PARKING:

B. Vehicles may be parked on owner's lot but not on side or rear setbacks, nor on sidewalks.
Parking is allowed anywhere in the front of the principle structure in the front setback including the front common ground when sidewalks are not present.

THIS REVISED EXHIBIT "J" WAS ADOPTED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING HELD MARCH 26, 2018. PLEASE PLACE THIS IN YOUR "BLUE BOOK" AS IT IS A PART OF YOUR CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS WHICH MUST BE MAINTAINED BY THE LOT OWNER.

EXHIBIT "A"

The Declaration of Condominium for American Condominium Parks-Zephyrhills is hereby amended by adding the following language to said Declaration:

"25. Occupancy Policy: Each unit shall be used for single family residential purposes only. When a unit is occupied, one of the occupants must hold equitable title or lease to the unit and must be fifty-five (55) years of age or older. No person under the age of eighteen (18) will reside with him/her. People under the age of eighteen (18) are allowed on the condominium property only for visits with relatives and for not more than thirty (30) consecutive days and not more than sixty (60) total days per calendar year.

Immediate family members (defined as parents, grandparents, children, grandchildren, brothers and sisters) under the age of fifty-five (55) and over the age of eighteen (18) may temporarily occupy a unit owned by an immediate family member over the age of fifty-five (55) without the owner being present. This will be by written permission from the unit owner, will not be considered a lease or rental, and will not exceed thirty (30) days duration during any calendar year.

24CFR Part 100 subpart E mandates that at least eighty percent (80%) of our units that are occupied must be occupied by at least one person who is fifty-five (55) years of age or older. The association reserves the remaining twenty percent (20%) for rights of inheritance and surviving spouse. This means that upon death of the over fifty-five (55) owner/resident, the heirs or surviving spouse under fifty-five (55) will not be required to sell or move out of the property and may live in it. If they choose to sell or rent the property, it must be to a person fifty-five (55) years of age or older."
